To help students continue their post-secondary education, Floy Bud Dickison, an English teacher, and Ona Maurita Scheidler, a Business teacher, established this scholarship in 1998 in honor of their mother, Floy Gilman Scheidler.

Please indicate your intended field of study or career plans: _____

Applicants for the Floy Gilman Scheidler Scholarship must be in the top fifty per cent of their graduating class from a Carlton County high school and must have earned a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Former students who are residents of Carlton County and graduates of a Carlton County high school or who have earned a Graduation Equivalent Degree (GED) will also be considered. Applicants must show participation in school and/or community activities. Financial need is also a consideration. Current college students applying for the first time must be Carlton County residents.

Scholarships of $1500 per semester will be awarded toward a post secondary degree for up to 8 semesters for a total of $12,000. Every year the Foundation Board of Directors will review the academic records of current scholarship recipients and renewal forms will be mailed to those eligible.

Your completed application must include the following supporting documentation:

- _____ Copy of parents' current or past year's IRS Form 1040, pp. 1-2
- _____ Copy of applicant's current or past year's IRS Form 1040, pp. 1-2, if filed.
- _____ Copy of high school transcript.
- _____ An essay of no more than 500 words. (typed with 12 pt, double spaced, standard font)
- _____ Two written recommendations: 1) school staff and 2) personal

Note: In keeping with the values of the Founders, please allow yourself enough time to complete your application carefully and completely (i.e. avoid crossing out and/or writing over errors).

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The table below summarizes your financial budget for your next year of post-secondary education. Please complete it carefully with the help of your parent/guardian or school counselor. In completing this table, please keep the following in mind:

- The information provided here along with your family's federal tax forms for the current or last year will determine your financial need. Financial need is a requirement of the Floy Gilman Scheidler scholarship.
- In order to accurately evaluate the financial need portion of your application, complete information must be provided. Applications with incomplete financial information will not be considered.
- This budget is for this next year only. If you have savings or other lump sum gifts to apply toward your education, divide the amount by the projected number of years needed to complete your degree. For example, if you have $10,000 of savings and plan to attend a 4-year school, divide $10,000 by 4 and enter $2,500 as savings.
- If you plan to live at home, omit the item of room and board as an expense or as a contribution of your parents/guardians.
